

Narrative Writing

The day it all went wrong.

Write a story that includes this idea. What could happen to the character or characters in your story that is so bad? It could be one problem or many problems that they have to deal with.

In your narrative you need to include

- an orientation
- events and a complication
- character or characters
- a resolution

Plan interesting or unusual ways to start and end your story.

Setting

Characters

Complication

Resolution